

THE WEATHER.

For Boston and vicinity: Cloudy, followed by snow; Tuesday, rain or snow; warmer; light, variable winds, becoming easterly and increasing in force.

High water: 9:25 a.m., 9:57 p.m.

8 PAGES

VOL. 1—No. 25.

MONDAY

AND NEW YORK JOURNAL

BOSTON, MONDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1904.

MONDAY

8 PAGES

PRICE ONE CENT.

HEARST'S BOSTON AMERICAN

NIGHT EDITION

SPEAKER CANNON WIELDING GAVEL IN THE HOUSE

REOPEN

SENATE HONORS HOAR

HARRY CALDWELL LOSES LIFE IN RUGGLE OF BIKERS IN NEW YORK

RIDERS PUTTING FORTH THEIR BEST EFFORTS TO REACH RECORD, BUT SO FAR FAIL.

Special to the Boston American.
HAROLD SQUARE GARDEN, New York, Dec. 5.—The big horde of speed triers, who are in the six-day speed trials, were today in the mood of desperate, reckless abandon, rushing in three dangerous spurs, racing neck-to-neck, struggling for the position of leader; thousands of excited spectators, mingling their own and shouting in excitement, made a scene in the first hours of the race today which would make the last few hours of the last day event, when the goal is in sight. At the end of the fourth hour of the race all of the teams were in the lead, and the race was in the hands of the four teams which were in the lead. The four teams were: (1) the team of the late Harry Caldwell, (2) the team of the late Harry Caldwell, (3) the team of the late Harry Caldwell, and (4) the team of the late Harry Caldwell.

But this morning Harry Caldwell started in a quiet, within a few yards of the start, directly in front of the late place, when, at the top of the race, the Caldwell team was in the lead. The Caldwell team was in the lead.

THROWING HIGH IN AIR.
The force of the collision sent him high in the air. He landed on his face and rolled down the incline on to the level of the track, several riders narrowly escaping collision over his prostrate form.

The pedal of one of the machines struck him on the forehead before the crash and he was sent flying into the air. He landed on his face and rolled down the incline on to the level of the track, several riders narrowly escaping collision over his prostrate form.

One of the New England riders, Mr. McLean, who was in the lead, was also in the lead. He was in the lead.

Bennie Monroe Badly Hurt.
In almost the same spot where Kennedy was so painfully injured five men collided this morning and one of them, Bennie Monroe, Walworth's partner, received serious contusions about the head and "hip" and was taken to the hospital.

IMMENSE CROWD PRESENT.
It is doubtful if the history of six-day bicycle races in Manhattan has ever seen a larger crowd of spectators attend an opening rally. It is no exaggeration to say that the moment the gates were thrown open, a vast throng of spectators gathered in the arena.

Adjourns in Respect to Memory of Massachusetts Statesman and of Late Senator Quay of Pennsylvania—House Centre of Interest at To-day's Session.

By Boston American Special Wire.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—Congress has resumed work. The final session of the fifty-eighth Congress commenced at noon to-day. To-day's proceedings concluded with the roll-call and the appointment of a committee from Senate and House to inform the President that the legislative branch of the Government waits his message.

The Senate adjourned as a mark of respect to the memories of the late Senators Hoar, of Massachusetts, and Quay, of Pennsylvania. Ex-Governor W. Murray Crane, who succeeds the late Bay State Senator, stood modestly in the background during today's brief proceedings.

At noon to-morrow the President's message will be read in the House, and then the real work will begin. The first general bill to come up is the legislative, judicial and executive appropriation bill. This provides mileage for the members of Congress and is already drafted. It will be taken up this week. Speaker Cannon, after conference with the President and department chiefs, is passing the word along to the majority members that it is necessary to keep down appropriations or the Government will be burdened with a big deficit.

To-day the shipping commission met to consider recommendations of the American merchant marine. A ship subsidy bill is in contemplation, but the impending deficit may defer its introduction until the Fifty-fifth Congress meets.

The attendance in both houses was unusually large and the galleries, like all opening days, were filled with the friends and relatives of the members.

Reminded Social Phobe.
In some of its phases, the great re-arranging, re-arranging and re-arranging gallery reminds with their dashes of bright colors in gowns and flowers.

Special to the Boston American.
NORTH ADAMS, Dec. 5.—"I would never return home if I thought I was to be sent away to school. I have been working here and earning $6.00 per week and have been here since June," said William Hunt McLaughlin, the sixteen-year-old runaway from Waterbury, in a brief interview with the Boston American reporter today just prior to his returning home with his mother.

McLaughlin has been working in the spinning room of the Eclipse mill since he left his mother's home. It was only after much persuasion that his mother learned the truth about his whereabouts.

RED CROSS DEPOT BURNED.
ST. PETERSBURG, Dec. 5.—The depot of the Russian Red Cross Society here has been seriously damaged by fire.

SPEAKER CANNON CALLING THE REPRESENTATIVES TO ORDER.

BOY CONFESSES TO SLAYING 2 PERSONS

Storm Signals are Out Along the Atlantic

Snow in New England To-night the Prediction; Possibly Rain To-morrow.

Four Shots Rang Out.
Girardelli and his mother-in-law were in the lower hallway, adding guests good night, when four shots rang out. Girardelli fell dead, and Mrs. Moore's rifle was empty.

Special to the Boston American.
MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 5.—An attempt to burn Boston and Chicago from out of sight worth of goods by forged letters bearing the name of Charles M. Floyd has resulted in the arrest of John A. Conway and George F. Flinn, of Tilton, N.H., who have been indicted for the crime.

Special to the Boston American.
MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 5.—An attempt to burn Boston and Chicago from out of sight worth of goods by forged letters bearing the name of Charles M. Floyd has resulted in the arrest of John A. Conway and George F. Flinn, of Tilton, N.H., who have been indicted for the crime.

Special to the Boston American.
MANCHESTER, N. H., Dec. 5.—An attempt to burn Boston and Chicago from out of sight worth of goods by forged letters bearing the name of Charles M. Floyd has resulted in the arrest of John A. Conway and George F. Flinn, of Tilton, N.H., who have been indicted for the crime.

AGONY IN PATERSON FACES FATE

Work of Selecting Jury for Her Second Trial Begins in New York.

ALL WITNESSES ON HAND

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—In the original murder of a Boston woman, the trial of Mrs. Patricia M. Morgan, charged with the murder of her husband, was postponed until today. A jury of twelve men has been selected, and a jury of twelve women has been selected.

The whole story of the trial was told in the Boston American. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Smith Still Missing. J. Morgan, known as Patricia's husband, was found in the morning. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Witnesses from the trial were called to the stand. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Another witness, the attorney, was called to the stand. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Placed in the dock. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Special in the Boston American. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Train Gone by Five Minutes. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Found Rich Man's Body Under the Ice. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Sudden Death for Exchange Member. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Out Up Men with Axes. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

MRS. J. PIERPONT MORGAN TAKES UP BOSTON RESIDENCE AT THE SOMERSET

RECEIVED BY GEO. GRANVILLE BAIN, IN THE U.S., 1904

MRS. J. PIERPONT MORGAN AND HER FAMILY.
Financial leader's wife, who has just taken up her winter residence in Boston at the Hotel Somerset. Mrs. Saterlee, her eldest daughter, is with her.

Noted Banker's Wife Under Care of Dr. Prince for the Winter.

Financial Leader Expected, but His Arrival Is Very Uncertain.

Mrs. J. Pierpont Morgan, wife of the New York banker and financier, is at the Hotel Somerset in Boston. She is expected to stay here for the winter.

Record Time in the Tunnel Speed Trial. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Train Gone by Five Minutes. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Found Rich Man's Body Under the Ice. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Sudden Death for Exchange Member. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

Out Up Men with Axes. The jury was selected in the afternoon, and the trial was postponed until today.

RUSSIANS SIX MILES OFF FALL BEFORE SOVIET BY CAPITALISTS

Desperate Attempts to Retake
203 Metre Repulsed with Heavy Loss.

SKIRMISHING AT THE SAHKE

LOSTON, Dec. 5.—Details of the night struggle at 203 Metre Hill are printed to day, and emphasize the fierce combat that has been going on since the Russian attack on the hill.

The battle began on the afternoon of November 27, and continued until the morning of the 28th. The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss.

The effort to retake 203 Metre Hill was made on the morning of the 28th. The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss.

The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss. The battle continued until the morning of the 28th.

The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss. The battle continued until the morning of the 28th.

The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss. The battle continued until the morning of the 28th.

The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss. The battle continued until the morning of the 28th.

The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss. The battle continued until the morning of the 28th.

The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss. The battle continued until the morning of the 28th.

The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss. The battle continued until the morning of the 28th.

The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss. The battle continued until the morning of the 28th.

The Russian attack was repulsed with heavy loss. The battle continued until the morning of the 28th.

SHALL WOMAN STANG? DEBATE IN THIS WEEK

Thursday Expected to Bring Decision from Legislators as to Her Fate.

BILL TO BE REPORTED

Special to the Boston American. MONTVERDE, Vt., Dec. 5.—Before this week is over, it is expected, the people of Vermont, through their chosen representatives in their law-making body, will give voice to their opinion on the question of whether or not a woman should be allowed to stang.

It is believed that the setting of Thursday will mark the beginning of the debate. Before then the legislators chambers will be the scene of the fiercest debate ever known under the roof of the State House.

The course of the Committee on Judiciary is pending. After much delay a report will be made to the Legislature. It is expected that the bill will be reported without recommendation by the committee. And now it is to be considered by the Legislature.

Standing the committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation. The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation.

The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation. The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation.

The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation. The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation.

The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation. The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation.

The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation. The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation.

The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation. The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation.

The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation. The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation.

The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation. The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation.

The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation. The committee will meet tomorrow to consider the bill, with the purpose of making a recommendation.

MONEY ASKS FOR LAST OF RIVERS

Cites His Case in Annual Report
as Showing Long Delays in Justice.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Attorney General W. H. Moody's report, sent to Congress today, is a discussion of the federal courts. It is a discussion of the federal courts. It is a discussion of the federal courts.

The report shows that the federal courts are in a state of disrepair. It is a discussion of the federal courts. It is a discussion of the federal courts.

The report shows that the federal courts are in a state of disrepair. It is a discussion of the federal courts. It is a discussion of the federal courts.

The report shows that the federal courts are in a state of disrepair. It is a discussion of the federal courts. It is a discussion of the federal courts.

The report shows that the federal courts are in a state of disrepair. It is a discussion of the federal courts. It is a discussion of the federal courts.

The report shows that the federal courts are in a state of disrepair. It is a discussion of the federal courts. It is a discussion of the federal courts.

The report shows that the federal courts are in a state of disrepair. It is a discussion of the federal courts. It is a discussion of the federal courts.

The report shows that the federal courts are in a state of disrepair. It is a discussion of the federal courts. It is a discussion of the federal courts.

HERST CHECK GAS GAB COMMERCIAL THE DOORWAY

New York's Professional and Business Men Applaud Injunction.

By Boston American Local Wire. NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—Justice Mayer's injunction against the publication of the contents of the Hearst gasometer is being applauded by business men in New York.

The injunction is being applauded by business men in New York. The injunction is being applauded by business men in New York.

The injunction is being applauded by business men in New York. The injunction is being applauded by business men in New York.

The injunction is being applauded by business men in New York. The injunction is being applauded by business men in New York.

The injunction is being applauded by business men in New York. The injunction is being applauded by business men in New York.

READING AT STOCKS ARE UP

Big blocks of Reading and Southern Railway stock have been sold in the market. The price of the stocks has risen.

The price of the stocks has risen. The price of the stocks has risen.

The price of the stocks has risen. The price of the stocks has risen.

CITY OF BOSTON CITY ELECTION

City Clerk's Office, November 25, 1904.

In accordance with the provisions of Chapter 11 of the Revised Laws, and any amendments thereto, the following is hereby given notice of the election of the City of Boston.

The election will be held on the 12th day of December, 1904. The election will be held on the 12th day of December, 1904.

The election will be held on the 12th day of December, 1904. The election will be held on the 12th day of December, 1904.

The election will be held on the 12th day of December, 1904. The election will be held on the 12th day of December, 1904.

READING AT STOCKS ARE UP

Big blocks of Reading and Southern Railway stock have been sold in the market. The price of the stocks has risen.

The price of the stocks has risen. The price of the stocks has risen.

The price of the stocks has risen. The price of the stocks has risen.

IF YOU ARE IN DOUBT consult us on line
Box 314, New York, N. Y.

PENSIONS.
VOUCHERS EXECUTED.
RICHARDSON, 37 Tremont st. Open Monday,
P. M. 4 to 6.

TYPEWRITERS.
SAVE MONEY—get machine, write or call.
STYRON'S TYPEWRITER, 100 Broadway.

ASTROLOGY.
CLAIRVOYANT and medium, readings $5.
M. J. HARRIS, 100 Broadway, 10th floor, opp.
Hudson City Hall, 10th floor, 100 Broadway.
Call. ROZZARDO, 30 Columbia st.

ADAM GIBBO, PALMIST, JOE MYRTLE
100 Broadway, 10th floor, 100 Broadway.
Call. ROZZARDO, 30 Columbia st.

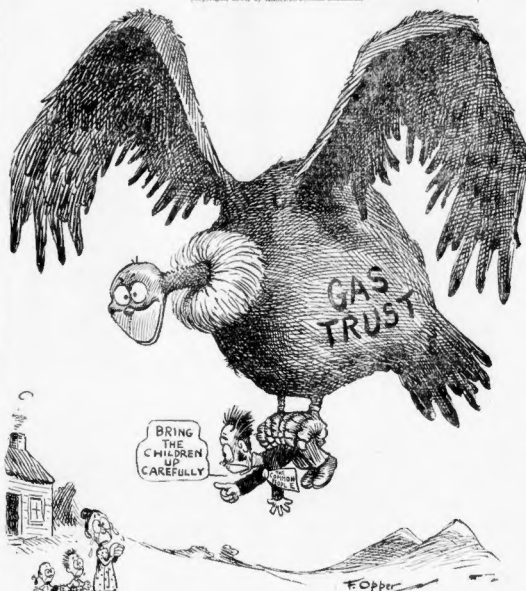

MISCELLANEOUS.
T. V. DAVID, 100 Broadway, 10th floor, 100 Broadway.
DAVE SMITH, 100 Broadway, 10th floor, 100 Broadway.
BOARD AND ROOMS.
38 WEST CANTON ST.—Ten minutes walk to business center, fully furnished rooms, all conveniences.
Call. ROZZARDO, 30 Columbia st.

A Wonder Book for Little Common People

40 AND 62 SUMMIT ST. BOSTON, DECEMBER 5, 1904.

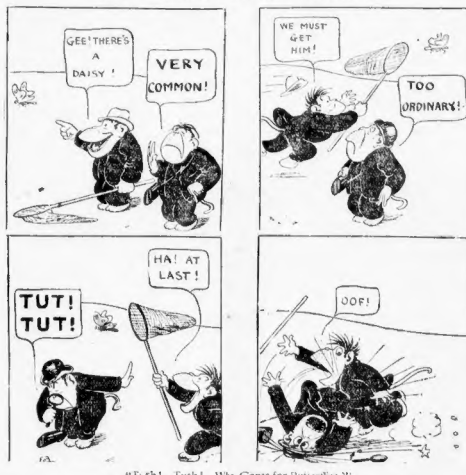

Advice from Others Is Well Meant But Seldom of Much Use

Copyright, 1904, by American Journal-Examiners.

The Condor Believes in the Simple Life
He Eats Plain but Nourishing Food
The Picture Explains Why the Native Left Home
Are you Sorry for the Native?
So am I

KNOCKO THE MONK

"Tush! Tush! Who Cares for Butterflies?"

IN BUGVILLE

BY THE SCENOGRAPHER

FEMININE EXTRAVAGANCE THAT MAKES A MAN
STEAL IS NOT USUALLY THAT OF HIS WIFE

"JACK," said the flock-keeper, "that's a woman writer says that sixty-nine per cent. of the inmates of a Western State prison declared that they were led to commit crime through the ex-

"He'll spend a whole week's salary sitting 'em up for a lot of dead beat friends."

"It's a shop-worn excuse," replied the Stenographer. "Every man from Adam down who has gone crooked has used it. It's the only excuse for side-tracking him off the straight and narrow path. A woman's lull has been the ruin of many a man, but they usually are not his wife's."

"A man," said the Stenographer, "is not a woman's property. He has ears, or on the race track, he won't remember it two weeks. He'll then tell," declared the Stenographer. "The majority of husbands don't mind knocking their wives' faults, and a woman spends more than she ought to keep her husband's ears from catching the side-tracking. It's the only excuse that raises a blither, or course when a man who is a fair business man, and who has been successful for but ninety-nine times out of a hundred, you'll find out that he's been making a mistake. He's been on the market is going to jump, or doing some side-stepping on his own account."

spend a whole week's salary setting out
'em up for a lot of dead-beat friends, and he won't ever recollect where his money went, but if he gives his wife the coin for a new gown it makes such an indelible impression upon him that he can recall every circumstance for three years.

"Don't you believe in woman's influence?" asked the Bookkeeper.
"A woman's influence, Scat," exclaimed the Stenographer, "the only time a woman can influence a man is when he has already made up his mind to do a thing, anyway."

"That's the reason when a man gets into financial difficulties he always thinks that he has been ruined by his wife's extravagance. All the money that he's wasted has slipped his memory, and the only thing he can recollect having spraddled the mazuma away on is in paying his wife's

"I shouldn't think that a man would permit his wife to land him in the hospital," said

"He always thinks that he has been ruined by his wife's extravagance," asserted the bookkeeper.

Pro Patria!

By Thomas J. Vivian
I

BACK from the quaking walls the Russians reel.
—The festering remnant of a garrison,
Then whirl again to ply the bloody steel.
While o'er each fort the man-fed vultures wheel,

Glutton of carrion.
SCENE.—The palace of Tsarakoe-Selo. Enter the Emperor Nicholas, followed by the Carrion, a nurse bearing the infant heir and a guard of gigantic Cossacks.
NICHOLAS.—How useless is the helpless life of this frail babe;

NICHOLAS.—How precious is the helpless life of this weak babe,
What power in the grip of these small hands:
How dear this tiny entity——

Enter Messenger.

MESSENGER.—Dispatches from the front, Your Majesty.
Success is in dire straits.

NICHOLAS.—Send him an ikon and the royal word

II.

Shrieking a new note in the chant of doom:
The freezing legions clash in sheer misery,
Stagger to deadly shock, and fight, and die,

—Each trench a hecatomb.

SCENE.—The royal chrysanthemum garden of Perfect Delight, Tokio.

Enter the Emperor Mutsuhito with attendants.

MUTSUHITO.—Look at these gorgeous flowers, emblems of that sun that warms us to a blessed sense of life.

Enter an Eldon Kintoboro, who greets him and announces disaster.

MUTSUHITO (reading).—News from Oyama; repulsed at Da. I see;
A temporary check, for Nippon fights so long as Nippon lives.

III.

On Japan the Great and the Milvada are

God save the Czar! and the Mikado, too,
—They'll need the prayer in that great Day of Dread
When naked souls before their Maker go,
When conquered battlefields and seas of woe

When sanguined battlefields and seas of woe
Give up their murdered dead!

Little Editorials from the People is a great honor to be connected way with the splendid and characfight the BOSTON AMERICAN is for the people against the gas com-

JEREMIAH CARR
No. 180 Dorchester st., South Lu-

too late to get any more names in. Had I got them earlier I would have had them and perhaps more besides. At rate I should have done my best, as it

Rogers should be hanged has drawn much of the sentiment that delays progress of the world toward peace and uprightness. So long as it is the hanging of a murderer it should apply to a woman as well as a man. But there be no such law in any State of our should make all of its people murderers and surely capital punishment is that. The influence of lynchings, hate and wars is decidedly for the development of the murderous instinct in the young in the unborn—for motherhood is universally protected. The anti-lynching properly protected. The old mosaic often quoted in defence of capitalism is not the Christian law, for it commanded you to love one another. It spoke against the law of vengeance. Churchmen upholding the Mosaic law are anti-Christ.

Fail every one in Bugville can house.
